Challenge, Creativity, Compassion: Create a pure heart in me – Psalm 51:10

Prayer of the week by Beau

We thank you that your son Jesus who died for us.

We thank you for the creation of our world.

We pray you look over us and forgive us all our wrongs

Amen

It was lovely to see so many of you at the church service. Thank you to the PTFA for providing refreshments, and to Mrs Brett for standing in for Reverend Mark. On behalf of all the staff may I wish you an enjoyable Easter Break and we look forward to seeing the children again in Tuesday 26th April.

Forest School Year 3.

A reminder that Forest school sessions start on the first day of term for Year 3 as we have a very short half term. Please ensure that your child comes into school in forest school clothes and that they are wearing long sleeves and trousers. Please bring in wellington boots.

Swimming for Summer Term

We will send out letters to all parent of all children that will be taking in swimming in the summer term next week. Please ensure that consent is returned to school by Wednesday 27th April. A separate communication will be sent to children who have reached age expected standard and these children will not swim in the summer term.

PD Day 25th April 2022

A reminder to parents that school will not be open to pupils on Monday 25th April to allow for staff personal development. Back to school for children on Tuesday 26th April 2022.

Saturn Class Gardening Homework Competition

This half term Saturn Class have been doing a Gardening Homework Competition. In school we each chose which seed or bulb we wanted to plant, thinking about what might grow the tallest. We took them home and had 6 weeks to look after them. We thought about giving them water, light and warmth. There were two prizes, one for the tallest plant and one for excellent effort. The two winners were Phoebe and Colby.

Reviews from the parents and children at Cavendish School

"My favourite part was when the argonauts sailed through the sharp rocks, because I liked the sound of the crashing waves – James, Jupiter Class.

Challenge, Creativity, Compassion: Create a pure heart in me – Psalm 51:10

My Favourite part was were the Evan was being funny and I liked the music. Max spoke really clear and loud – Isabelle, Jupiter

"I enjoyed the part where Eros (god of love) was shooting Medea with the arrow to fall in love with Jason, Also I found the Argo clashing rock scene looked very realistic and the tides were going crazy. The songs were really enjoyable and all the actors were singing and dancing really well" Oliver, Neptune

"What I enjoyed is how everyone seemed happy they supported each other. I liked all the songs especially when Jason and Medea sang on their own because although they were really nervous and they sung really well" – Millie Neptune

"WOW – Saturn Class, All your hard work has paid off – what an amazing show, you should ALL be very proud" – Parent Review.

"Each and every one of you were fantastic! Well done we thoroughly enjoyed it". – Parent Review.

"Absolutely amazing! Well done. You are all superstars!!" – Parent Review.

"The children did amazing! Great performance and amazing singing." – Parent Review.
